

Eliot-Hine Collaboration Team

Eliot-Hine's Collaboration Team is an opportunity for parents and staff from Eliot-Hine and its feeder elementary schools to work together towards a common vision for middle school. Comprised of representatives from Eliot-Hine MS, Tyler ES, Miner ES, Maury ES, Payne ES, and Ludlow-Taylor ES, the team will facilitate communication across school communities and support a culture at Eliot-Hine that embraces diversity and engenders academic excellence. Fostering an inclusive school environment that is supported by community participation is essential for Eliot-Hine's success!

➤ What are the goals of the collaboration team?

- Engender a sense of community across Eliot-Hine MS, Tyler ES, Miner ES, Maury ES, Payne ES, and Ludlow-Taylor ES.
- Develop a strong communication network among schools
- Support the implementation of DCPS' Ward 6 Middle School Plan

➤ What are examples of projects/activities for the team?

- Organize community-building activities and events for students, staff and families
- Organize informational events on International Baccalaureate – Middle Years Program.
- Serve as a liaison to each school's PTA and LSRT

➤ Who will be on the team?

- Two parent representatives from each school, to be selected by each Principal
- Two teacher/staff representatives from each school, to be selected by each Principal
- The Principal or Assistant Principal from each school

➤ How often will the team meet?

- Collectively, the team will agree on meeting frequency, dates/times, location. We recommend an in-person meeting at least once a month.
